

COMING THIS FALL

PUBLIC MEETINGS LAW TRAINING

SDAO is pleased to announce that we will be offering in-person Public Meetings Law trainings this fall. This Public Meetings Law training has been reviewed and approved by Oregon Government Ethics Commission (OGEC), a member of a governing body who attends and completes this training will satisfy the training requirement set forth in ORS 192.700. These sessions are designed to help district board members, managers, and staff better understand Oregon's Public Meetings Law and how to ensure compliance in day-to-day governance.

This training will provide practical guidance and real-world examples tailored to the unique needs of special districts.

WHY ATTEND?

- » Clarify common misconceptions
- » Learn best practices for agenda setting, minutes, and executive sessions
- » Understand recent updates and interpretations from the Oregon Government Ethics Commission
